All I can make of this is;

Andrew son of Philip Nicholas and Grace was baptised September.

Please can someone complete it for me?

Especially the date and the word after Gratia?

Thanks,

Rob
