A requiem mass will be celebrated in St. Mary's Cathedral this (Monday) morning, at 9 o'clock, for the repose of the soul of the late Patrick Dimond

Dimond.- The friends of Mr and Mrs Joseph Kavanagh are respectfully requested to attend the funeral of their late beloved uncle, Mr P. Dimond, to move from his late residence, William Street, on Monday, at 2.30, for Waverley Cemetery.

Dimond.- The friends of Mr John Kavanagh are respectfully requested to attend the funeral of their late beloved brother-in-law, Mr P. Dimond, to move from his late residence, William Street, on Monday, at 2.30, for Waverley Cemetery.

Funeral of Mr. Patrick Dimond.

On last Sunday morning Mr. Patrick Dimond died, aged 53 years, at his residence, William-street, after a short illness. Though not of robust health, he was always fairly strong, and his death came as a great shock to his numerous friends and his sorrowing family. He was attended in his last moments by the Rev. Father Barry, St. Mary's Cathedral. The deceased, was a native of Galway, a good Catholic, and his loss will be keenly felt by the poor of the neighbourhood. On Monday morning a Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated at the Cathedral by the Very Rev. Dr. O'Haran. The funeral rites were performed by the Rev. Father Barry, assisted by the Rev. Fathers Whyte and Kelly, St. Mary's Cathedral. Among the mourners who accompanied the remains to Waverley Cemetery were his widow, Mrs. Dimond, and his children, the Misses Dimond and Messrs. W. Dimond, J. Dimond, and P. Dimond. — R.I. P.
