OBITUARY

MRS. JOHN BILLINGTON

Mrs. John Billington died on Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Byrnes, 84 Valley Terrace, Town of Rye.
She was eighty-one years old.

Mrs. Billington had lived in Rye for many years and was a com-municant of the Church of the Resurrection. She was born in Port Chester, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Murphy.

Besides her husband and daughter, she leaves two sons, Lambert Billington of Port Chester and Norman Billington of Rye; twelve grandchildren and seventeen great-grandchildren.

A mass of requiem was celebrated Monday morning at the Church of the Resurrection by the Rev. Cornelius O'Brien. Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery where the Rev. Rene Viau conducted the committal service.

GIRL SCOUT HOUSE

Editor, Rye Chronicle:

Possibly my memory fails me, but I think a decision was made to demolish the present Rye Girl Scout House when the girls asked for its use. If they saved it from demolition and fixed it up, it seems too bad to now take it from them.

If one of the tenets of the Scout Oath is fair-play, I think they deserve their "House".

With the passing of both Mr.
and Mrs. Koons, would it be possible for the Board of Education to acquire that adjoining property which might better suit their needs.

Very truly yours,
(Mrs.) Ruth R. Lane
643 Milton Road

A total of 55,000,000 trips is expected to be made on the New York State Thruway in its first full year of operation. This is twice the total on the Pennsylvania Turnpike during its first 10 years of operation.

Ann Dove on Dean's List

Burlington, Vt.—Ann Dove, 641 Milton Road, Rye, was among sixty-nine students named to the Dean's List for the spring semester in the College of Education and Nursing at the University of Vermont. Miss Dove recorded a scholastic average of 85.0-88.9 over the past semester. She will enter her senior year at the University in September.

Attending Big League Game

The Rye Police Association has completed plans for its annual baseball outing to New York next month when it will be hosts to 100 Rye boys and girls at Yankee Stadium when the Yankees meet the Boston Red Sox. Consent forms and tickets are available from members of the association at police headquarters.
